

Local History: Monroe & Union County, NC

This bibliography is also available electronically at our library web site.

*Titles that also circulate!

*Looking Back at Monroe's History
R 975.6 KEN

Virginia A. S. Kendrick Bjorlin
1995 & 2005

Electricity came to the city of Monroe the night of Jan. 16, 1900.

*A Peek in the Past
R 975.6 SHUT

Joy & Kirk Shute
1999

The Heritage of Union County, North Carolina, Volumes I & II
R 975 HERI

Virginia A. S. K. Bjorlin, Editor

*The History of Union County
R 975.6

H. Nelson Walden
1964 (note: no illustrations)

*An Inventory of Historic Architecture
R 975.6 LEE

Mary Ann Lee
1978

*Sketches of Monroe and Union County
R 975.67 STACK

Amos M. Stack (Stack & Beasley)
1902

The first tax-supported rural graded high school in NC was established in Wesley Chapel in 1901.

Note: text only of this book is available in two parts as of Nov. 2013:

<http://files.usgwarchives.net/nc/union/books/skemoboo.txt> (through p. 59)

<http://files.usgwarchives.net/nc/union/books/skemobo1.txt>

*Sweet Union: An Architectural and Historical Survey of Union County, North Carolina
R 975.6 SWEE

Suzanne S. Pickens, Editor
1990

*The Union County Courthouse, 1843-1981 Wayne K. Durrill
R 975.6 DUNN

1982

(Don't let the title fool you – lots of Monroe and Union County history within)

1912: A typewriter used for the first time in the Historic courthouse.

*Union County, North Carolina, 1842-1953
R 975.6 UNIO

Monroe Journal
1953

(slim paperback includes the late historian John M. Redwine's original article about Union County first published in The Monroe Journal, 23 October 1925)

Videos & DVDs

*Monroe, North Carolina (Black & White, silent, 15 min., c1941)

DVD 975.6 MONROE

*My Home Town: Monroe, North Carolina (Black & White, 25 min., c1946)

DVD 975.6 MY

Our Home Town, Monroe, NC (above films combined – no longer available)

Some Web sites:

Find Historic Photos under "Genealogy Researchers" at

<http://www.union.lib.nc.us/>

Julie's Genealogy Page (aka "Julie Ganis"; lots of photos & newspaper abstracts + more): <http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.com/~jganis/>

Anita Kendrick Wall's Memories: <http://nitawall.com/> (more photos!)

*Circulating titles

Top Background: 1922 postcard looking south on Main Street (available at J. Ganis' web page above) -over-

👉 More 👈

The Andrew Jackson Birthplace Problem
R 917.56 HARR

Max F. Harris
(1963)

*Indian Trail: The First 100 Years, 1907-2007
R 975.6 MACKEY

Victoria Mackey, Editor
(2006)

*Indian Trail 1899 through 2007: The Photographs

DVD 975.6 INDIAN TRAIL

*A Pictorial History of Union County,
North Carolina* Vol 1 & 2*
R 975.6 PICTORI

Enquirer Journal, Brenda Helms, compiler
(2005)

*Portraits of American Heroes: A Union County, North Carolina Salute to Veterans
R 305.90697 PORTRAI

Enquirer Journal (2006)

A Story of Union County and the history of Pleasant Grove Camp Ground
R 975.6 WINC

George T. Winchester
(1937)

*Unionville 1885-1985: A History of the First Hundred Years
R 975.6 OUTE

Essie May Outen
(1985)

*Waxhaw 100 History: Waxhaw Centennial 1989 **
R 929.1 GAMBLE

Harry Y. Gamble, compiler
(1989)

The History and Heritage of The Village of Wesley Chapel
R 975.6 LEE

Bill Lee
(2008)

The Railroad came to Monroe in 1874 with the first passenger train arriving November 6, 1874.

👉 Townships 👈

In 1869 there were seven:

Goose Creek
Sandy Ridge
Jackson

New Salem
Lane's Creek
Buford

and Monroe

Two more added in 1879:

Vance (from portions of Goose Creek & Sandy Ridge)
Marshville (from portions of Lanes Creek & New Salem)

Township data above is from The Monroe Enquirer, 1 FEB 1912, Historical Section http://history.union.lib.nc.us/1912%20paper/monroe_enquirer_1912.html

(Background: Colton Map 1861)

A favorite historic map: 1907 "Miller's Map" is online at:

<http://dc.lib.unc.edu/cdm/ref/collection/ncmaps/id/280> (color version)

*circulating titles – check catalog for location

Union Count Public Library www.union.lib.nc.us

Dickerson Genealogy & Local History Room

316 E. Windsor Street, Monroe, NC 28112

704-283-8184 x224 (updated 2017)