THE catalogue of the Bingham School for the year ending June 1 1880, is before us. The exhibit is better than ever before. The roll contains 189 names, representing ten Southern States, District of Columbia, South America, (Brazil), Europe, (Scotland), and Asia, (Siam)—a number and an area of patronage unprecedented in the history of Southern Schools. Those best acquainted with the school say that the discipline and instruction were never a as good as at present, and that the satisfaction given to patrons and pupils was never as great. See ad.

HERE'S YOUR LOVE LETTER!—Some one in depositing letters in the Post office at this place a few days since, through mistake we suppose, deposited also several pages of what appears very sweet on dear Jim.

The part found contains pages 9, 10, 11, and 12 and still the end does not appear. Nothing to indicate names of owner or writer. Should any one find they have lost a part of some precious document of this kind, call on the Postmaster at this pace and that is of value to him only.

IN 25CTS. AND $1 BOTTLES. Its properties are Demulcent, Nutritive Balsamic, Soothing and Healing. Combining all these qualities, it is the most effective LUNG BALSAM ever offered to sufferers from pulmonary

DR. J. F. HAYWOOD,

-READ WHAT HE SAYS:-PREAD WHAT HE SAYS:—
Dr. TUTT: New York, Sept., 19, 1877.
Dear Sir.—During this year I visited nine hundred cases of lung diseases. In the lower wards of the city the cases were of a very sovere type. It was there my attention was called to Tutt's Expectorant, and I confess my surprise at its wonderful power. During a practice of twenty years, I have never known a medicine to act as promptly, and with such happy effects. It instantly subdued the most violent fits of coughing, and invariably cured the disease in a few days. I cheerfully indorse it as the best lung medicine I ever used.

J. FRANCIS HAYWOOD, M. D.

A NEWSPAPER PUB. WRITES. Office, Evening News, Augusta, Ga.
Dr. TUTT: Dear Sir-My little son, was attacked with pneumonia last winter, which left him with a violent cough, that lasted till within a month since, for the cure of which I am indebted toyour valuable Expectorant. I had tried most every thing recommended, but none did any good until used your Expectorant, one bottle of which removed the cough entirely. With many thanks, I am yours truly, JOHN M, WEIGLE.

Had terrible NICHT SWEATS. Memphis, Feb., 11, 1871.
Dr. TUTT: Sir—I have been suffering for nearly two years with a severe cough. When I commenced taking your Expectorant I was reduced to one hundred and sixteen pounds in weight. I had tried almost everything; had terrible night sweats. I have taken half dozen bottles. The night sweats have left me, the cough has disappeared, and I have gained fifteen younds in fiesh. I recommend it to all my friends.
With great respect, OLIVEE RICE.

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS.

Reader, have you caught a cold? Are you unable to raise the phicym? Have you an irritation in the throat? A sense of oppression on the lungs, with short breath? Do you have a fit of coughing on lying down? A sharp pain now and then in the region of the heart, shoulters and back? If so, our Advice is take at once a dose of Tutt's Expectorant; you will soon be able to raise the phlegm. In an hour repeat the Expectorant, place a hot iron to the feet, take two of Tutt's Pills. You will soon fall into a pleasant sleep and wake up in the morning, cough gone, lungs working freely; easy breathing, and the bowels moving in a natural manner. To prevent a return of these symptoms use the Expectorant several days. . Office, 35 Murray Street, N. Y.

Blackberry Wine.

About a year ago we wrote a somewhat lengthy article upon the manufacture of wine from the native blackberry, or dewberry, properly speaking, which article was extensively copied in all parts of the South. Many of our subscribers and acquaintances, taking our suggestions as a guide, made large and small quantities, with DR. C. McLANE'S varying success. The season has again arrived and we urge the manufacture of a moderate quantity of this wholesome beverage, which in hot weather, possesses also great medical virtues. It is, par excellence, a poor man's wine.

In the briefest possible manner we repeat directions, which, if followed with reasonable exactness, will give a wine superior in quality to any import- Symptoms of a Diseased Liver. ed or native grape product.

Why Milk Varies in Quality.

One of the reasons why poor land produces milk which as compared Bros. on the wrappers. with that produced on good, land, is Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. deficient in fatty matters, and so is better adapted for cheese-making than full of imitations of the name McLane, for butter-making, lies in the fact that spelled differently but same pronunciation. the grasses on it contain a larger proportion of flesh-forming ingredients as albumen, fibrin casein, gluten, etc .and a smaller one of fat-forming ones -as starch, gum, sugar, etc., than found in the grasses of rich land But another reason is found in the additional respiration of oxygen which takes place in the animal economy when cows are pastured on poor land and have to go through more exercise in search for food. The oxygen of the air which is inhaled to an increased extent by animals who take an extra amount of exercise, has a direct tendency to consume the fat in the sys tem of the animal-actual combustion of the fat takes place. Hence the increased heat of the animal's body, and hence also a diminished amount of fat among the tissues, and a diminishproportion of butter in the milk. Again, the more exercise the animal takes, the greater will be the waste or the breaking up of the tissues of the body; and as this is the source from which the curd in milk is derived, milk produced on land whose herbage is scanty will contain a larger proportion of curd than milk produced on land whose herbage is abundant. It will now be perceived why it is that the milk produced on poor land has a larger proportion of curd and a smaller one of butter than that produced on good land; it will be equally plain that the shorter the distance cows have to travel to and from their pastures, whether those pastures be rich or poor land, the richer in fat their milk will be; and it will be even still more evident that the faster they are made to travel that distance the poorer their milk will be. The Best Remedy Known to Man! The Best Remedy Known to Man!

Dr. Clark Johnson having associated himself with Mr. Edwin Eastman, an escaped captive, long a alaye to Wakametkia, the medicine man of the Comanches, is now prepared to lend his aid in the introduction of the wonderful remedy of that tribe.

The experience of Mr. Eastman being similar to that of Mrs. Chas. Jones and son, of Washington County. Iowa, an account of whose sufferings were thrillingly narrated in the New Jork Herald of Dec. 15th, 1878, the facts of which are so widely known, and so nearly parallel, that but little mention of Mr. Eastman's experimer meas will be given here. They are, however, published in a neat volume of 300 pages, entitled "Seven and Nine Years Among the Comanches and Apaches," of, which mention will be made hereafter. Sumes it to easy that for several years Mr. Eastman, while a captive, was compelled to mather the roots, gums, barks, herbs and 'e-rries of which Wakametkia's medicine was made, and is still prepared to provide the same materials for the successful introduction of the medicine to the world; and assures the public that the reanedy is the same now as when Wakametkia compelled him to make it.

Nothing has been added to the medicine and posteriors of the page of the medicine of the medicine was the same now as when Wakametkia compelled him to
